

Set your mind on the things that are above,
not on the things that are upon the earth.
Colossians 3:2 (ASV)

Here's a song about learning not to become too attached to this world, to this life, and to this body.

For this one, I was inspired by the lessons in First John, which warn us not to love the world or anything in it. Although we are the children of God...the world, with its sinful cravings, lust, and pride, is under the control of the evil one.

The world and its desires pass away,
but whoever does the will of God lives forever.
1 John 2:17 (NIV)

No Body's Business

by Jeffrey Robert Smith

Verse 1: Maybe it's time to be changin' what I do.
I was keepin' a secret, but Lord, it's clear to You.
I was tradin' my salvation for a better life, it's true...
This is no body's bus'ness;
'Cause whose body is this?
Now I'm takin' my bus'ness to You.

Verse 2: I used to see life as a game of bought and sold...
It was all about conquest, just a quest to get the gold.
Now I know I'll only need what I can take upon my soul.
This is...no body's bus'ness;
'Cause whose body is this?
Now I'm takin' my bus'ness to You.

Secondary: It took some time for the truth to come to me...
It's not about now, it's about eternity.
It's only a vessel; and it's only for the ride;
You'll be leavin' your baggage; try to keep your hands inside.
It's not out of reach, but only Jesus can decide...
You'd better mind your own bus'ness.
As God is your witness;
It's the best thing that a body can do.

Verse 3: Now I can see that old saying is true:
"Life has so many choices, but eternity has two."
So I'm trying to do better, than I ever used to do.
Lord, it's no body's bus'ness;
'Cause whose body is this?
So I'm takin' my bus'ness to You.
